RE: PA CONSTRUCTION LIMITED REOPENING MAY 8, 2020

Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf announced today that some Construction work will be allowed to continue in the Commonwealth starting on Friday, May 8, 2020.

All existing restrictions on personal or business activities currently remain in effect.

Construction businesses which reopen will need to adhere to strict social distancing restrictions. Other health and sanitation requirements will likely be outlined in the coming days.

More details on this limited reopening have not yet been released. The Chapter will update you as soon as they become available.
