RE: PHILADELPHIA PANDEMIC SAFETY OFFICER TRAINING

The latest guidelines for Philadelphia's May 1 Construction Reopening require Contractors working in the City to appoint a "Pandemic Safety Officer" for each active jobsite.

This Officer, who may also be the "Site Safety Manager", must be on the job site at any time that work is ongoing in order to ensure compliance with all official COVID-19 guidelines.

Pandemic Safety Officers must also have obtained a COVID-19 training certificate from sources approved by the Philadelphia Department of Licenses and Inspections (L&I).

One free course, which is roughly 20 minutes in length, has been specifically approved by Philadelphia L&I and is available by clicking the following link:

An alternative, paid course has also been approved by Philadelphia L&I and is available on its website. The Chapter expects other approved courses and guidance on Pandemic Safety Officer certification to be released in the coming days.
